

Baltimore county, Patapisc Neck, April 3, 1775.
TWENTY DOLLARS REWARD.
For apprehending a Runaway.

JAMES, a mulatto slave, sometimes known by the name of Vulcan, but commonly answers to the name of Buck, took on abrupt leave of his overseer Wednesday, and has not yet returned; he is a mulatto, about 5 feet 9 inches high, strong made, sensible, artful, and deceptive in conversation, firm and daring in his efforts to perpetrate villainy, though mild temper, and plausible in speech: he has frequently travelled through a considerable part of this and some part of the province of Pennsylvania; is well known, it is supposed, in the borough and county of Lancaster, and is acquainted with Philadelphia, by probably therefore re-visit those places. His working cloaths were a home-manufactured long cloth frock with sleeves, and breeches, yarn stockings, a flannel shirt, and good shoes, nailed with hobs: he is possessed of and has taken with him a blue German coat, a green broad cloth vest, two pair of cotton and one pair of thread stockings, two white shirts, a good castor hat with band and buckle, a pair of good pumps, with a pair of double named silver buckles. He has a mark of distinction, which from modesty, or some other motive, he is careful to conceal; one of his ears (but which is forget) is remarkably less than the other. The above reward will be paid if he should be taken up out of the province, or 60 miles from Baltimore town in the province, and brought home; five pounds if at the distance of 40 miles, three pounds if 30, and forty shillings if 20 miles, with reasonable travelling expences, including the legal charge under the act of assembly, of 29 THOMAS JONES.

AN away from the subscriber, living in the lower part of Prince George's county, on the 11th day of July last, a negro man, named Ireland, born in the West-Indies, about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, slender made, one of the fore teeth in his upper jaw beat out about 18 months ago, and now in the same place another one growing, on the right side of his neck and immediately under his jaw, there is some scars which were occasioned by some distemper he had in that part, has had the small pox and a little pitted, mild fair spoken man, not impertinent, but very unkind: had on and took away with him, an old undal cotton jacket, one pair of petticoat trousers of silk, one pair of old white fustian breeches, one new pair of rills, one old white shirt, and one Monmouth cap. Whoever secures the said negro, so that I can get him again, shall receive 20 shillings more than what is allowed by law.

19 X JOHN BAPTIST BOSWELL.

WANTED immediately, a number of hands who are acquainted in the different branches of the manufacture of fire arms—good wages and encouragement will be given to such as have been used to work any branch, according to their proficiency and industry, either by the piece or time.—As good locksmiths, or other near siders, will be soon handy in making several parts of gun locks, to such also I will give good encouragement.—There are many servants about the country who would be very useful in the necessary business I am now engaging in; I should be glad to be informed of such, and wish to hire them, purchase their times of service of their master.

19 X ISAAC HARRIS.

N. B. I want to hire a good fire-cutler.

STRAYED about three weeks ago from the subscriber, a large red cow, about 8 years old, she has lately purchased from a person who brought her from the back woods, where it is supposed she will endeavour to make; she has a white streak from the edge of her back to her tail, and some white in her face—I will give 20 shillings currency to any person that will deliver her in Annapolis.

21 X J. CLAPHAM.

THE partnership of James Dick and Stewart being expired, all persons indebted to them, are requested to make what payments they possibly can. Persons indebted by open account, and who cannot conveniently pay, are desired to settle by granting their bonds or notes for such balances; such a reasonable request, it is hoped will be complied with, that the subscribers may not be under the disagreeable necessity of making application to have suits brought. Constant attendance will be given at the store, by James Dick and Stewart.

The goods remaining in the late store of James Dick and Stewart, will be sold on reasonable terms, wholesale or retail by the subscribers. Also all sorts of carriage manufactured at Newington rope-walk, likewise Madeira wine, by the pipe, hhd. or quarter cask.

17 X JAMES DICK.

STRAYED from Poplar-hill, the seat of Robert Darnall, Esq; in Prince George's county, on the 10th of August, a dark chestnut horse, 9 years old, about 14 hands high; he is a strong boney horse, has a blaze in his face, paces, trots, and gallops, and has a brand on his near buttock resembling a T. Whoever will return him to Mr. Darnall, or the subscriber in Annapolis, may receive a guinea reward.

15 X JAMES MURRAY.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons indebted to the subscriber, either by bond, note, or open account, to immediately come and settle their respective debts, as I am determined to give no longer indulgences.—I hope this requisition will be adverted to, otherwise I shall take compulsory methods to enforce payment, without any respect to persons.

27 JOSEPH DUVAL.

GREEN.